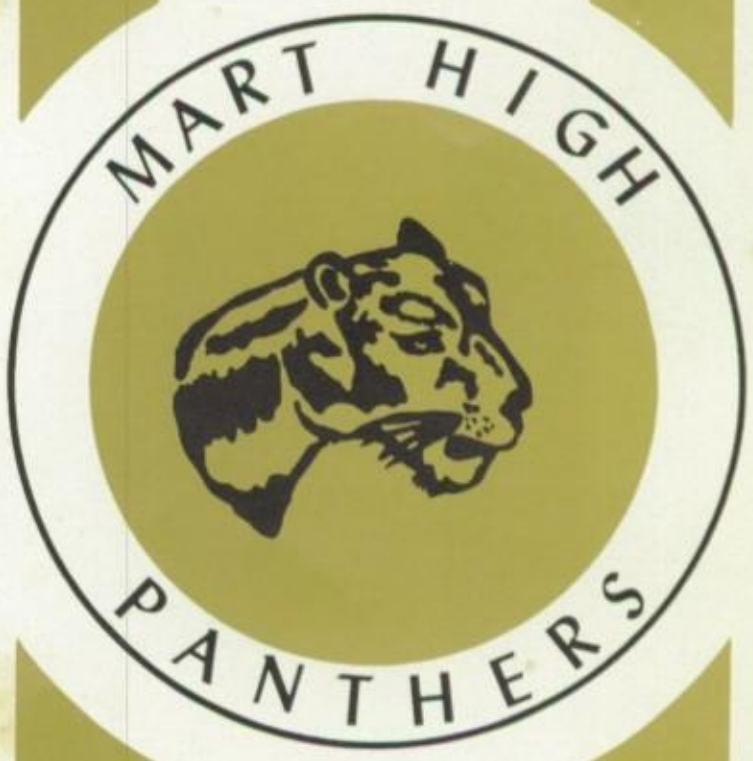
Mart High School
Mart, Texas



Because:

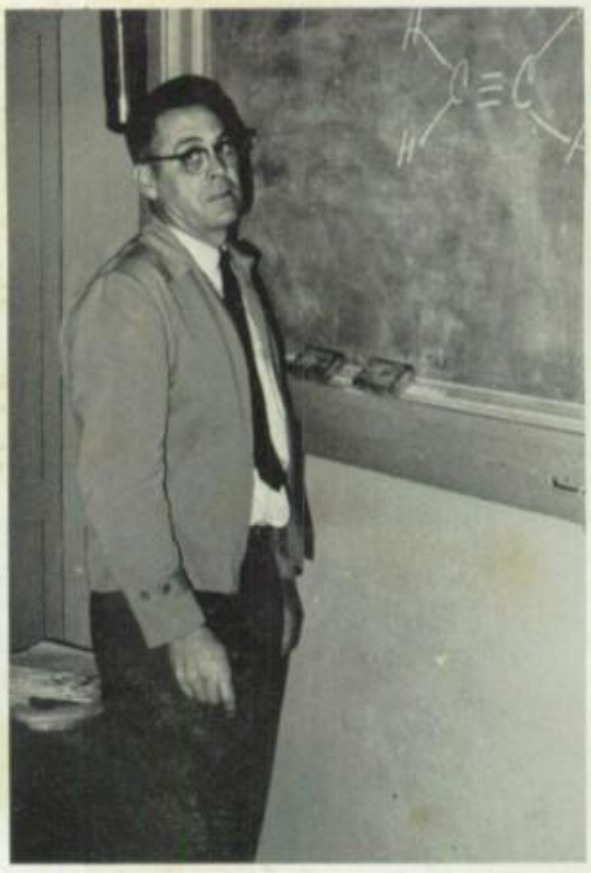
You work tirelessly at all times to present to others MHS at its best.

You initiate in us an interest in values which will remain with us.

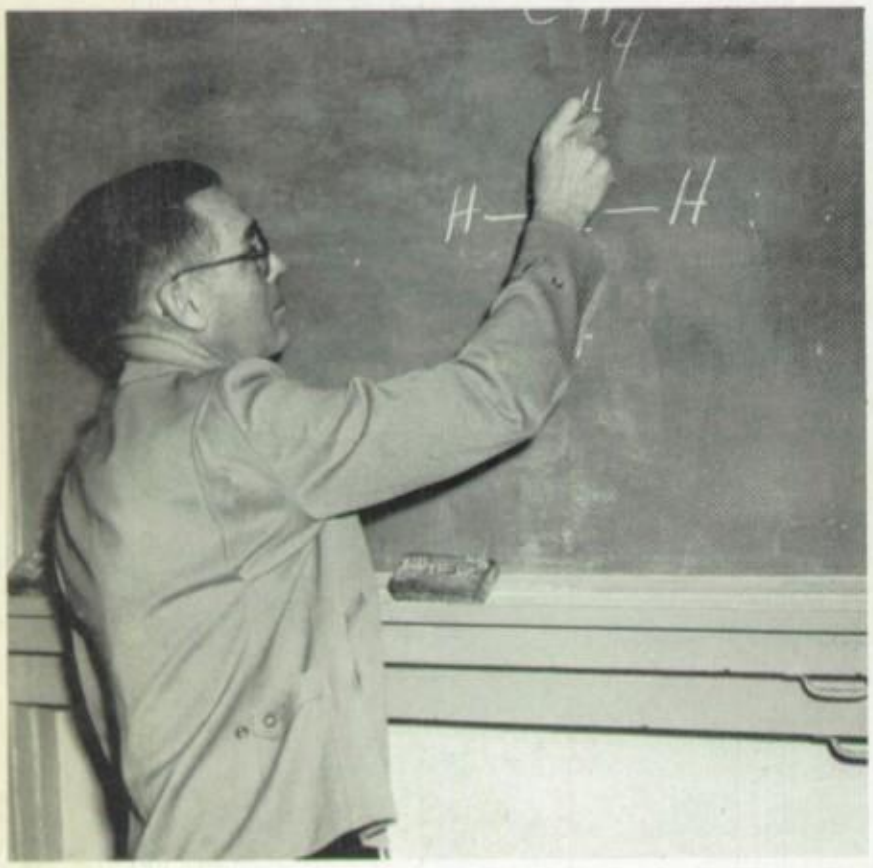
You contribute your time to community projects which support MHS students.

You possess admirable traits which you recognize and develope in students.

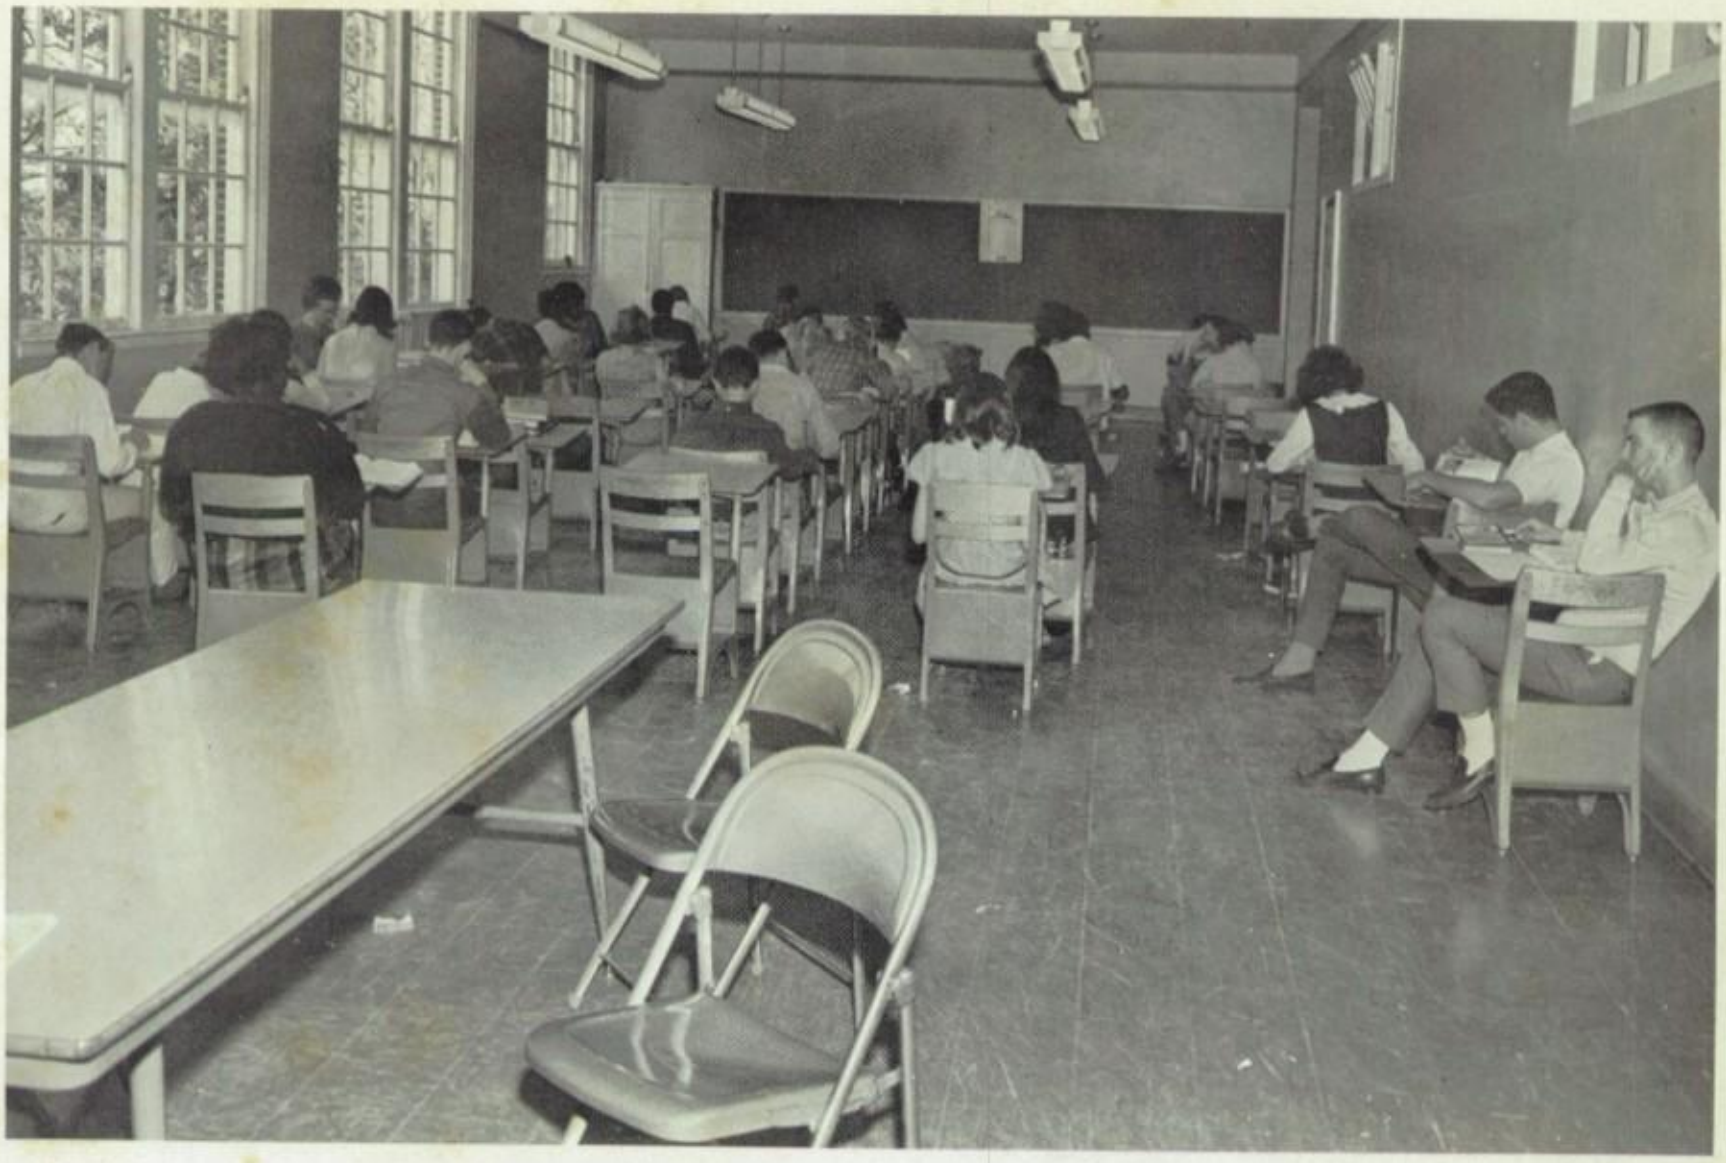
Most of all you understand the WAYS OF STUDENTS



We Dedicate This Annual to You,



MR. MARION MARTIN



FOREWORD

A yearbook is many things. To the principal, it is a pictorial record of this school and student body. To the student body it is the record of a lively and complex year of growth as members of a constantly changing society.

Yearbooks are, in a manner, reflections of this lively and complex year. Yes, we are a strange breed, we modern-day students reflected in these pages, always changing, growing, maturing. Admittedly some things never change. Teachers go on forever ... or seem to.

The 1969 Panther is a reflection of all that and much more. Yes, fun and happiness, victory and defeat, togetherness and solitude, these are all reflected in its pages. This is Mart High School in 1969.

Reflections in the Classroom

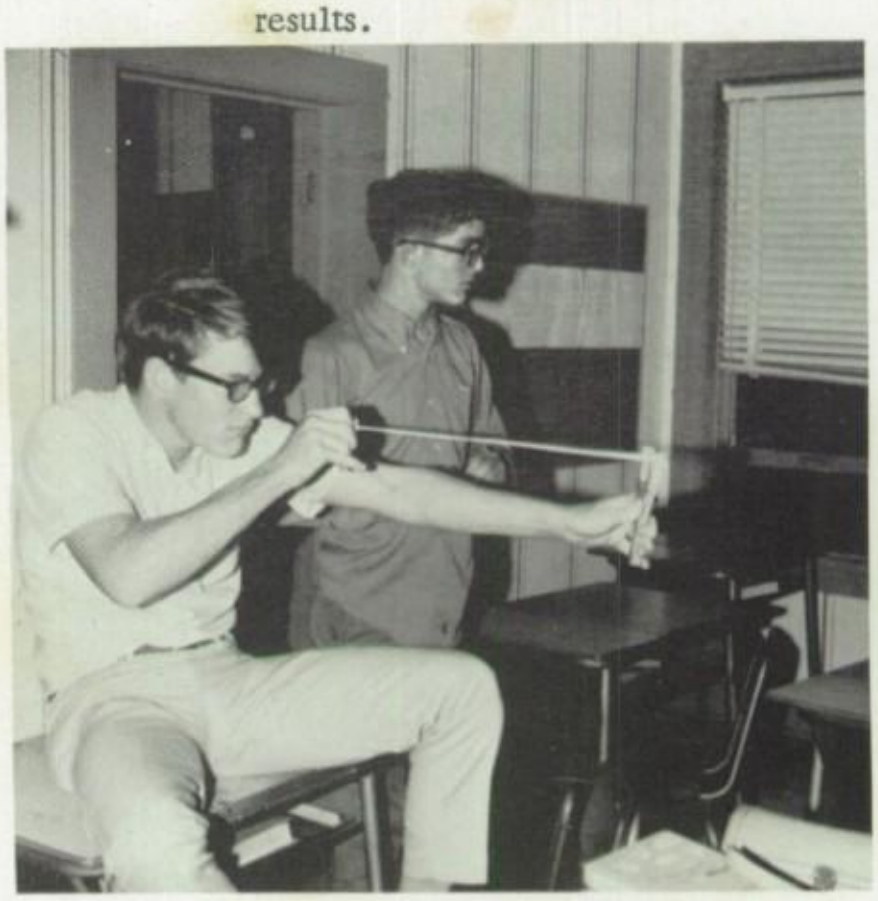
The passing of years will not fade the good times, the works, and the joys of high school days.

Part of the good times, some of the joys, and a small amount of work helped classroom time pass swiftly in '69.

Reflected in these pages we see some of the factors which contributed to making this year not only one of learning but also one of fun and participation.

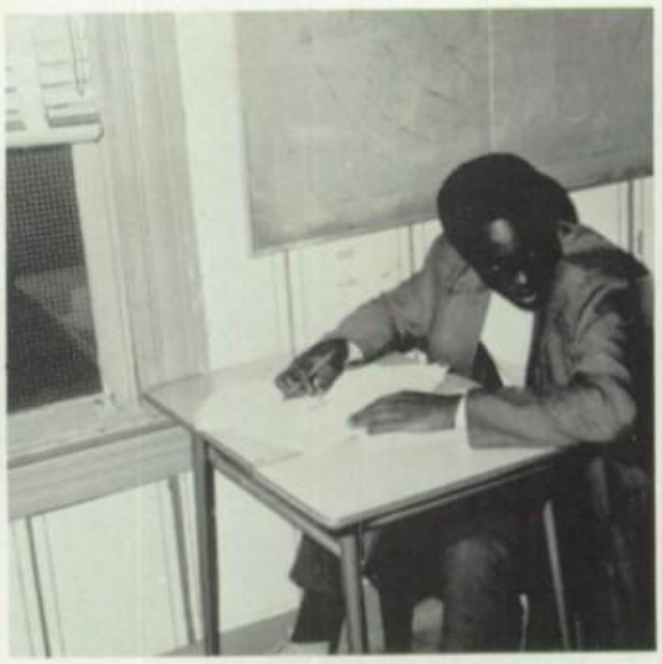
Margaret and Mary anxiously await Sr. Class election results.

Some seventh grade students work hard on their math assignment.



So this is what they do in Algebra II.

Physics can be a lot of laughs; proved here by Linda Gunter.



All right now, no cheating.

Blow in my ear and I'll follow you anywhere.

The Trig assignment seems to be a group effort.

It's falling apart!

Gary Davis gives humorous current event.

So you think you've had a bad day.

Donna Jurecka doesn't like interruptions.

It sure doesn't smell like tomato juice.

Monte Story is Snuffy Smith.

Two hippies participate in an NHS skit.

True love.

Ella Mae Ehlers helps to decorate Jan's bug.

Mary Jo Coker and Dana Wiley ride on the FHA Float, "Snuffy Smith."

Carolyn catches a few winks before Sr. Play Practice.

Reflections of Student Life

Life is a never ending stream. It flows on, over each and every one of us. In Life you have two choices: you can just float along or you can swim ahead and meet it face to face.

MHS students have an opportunity to meet Life head on in this Space Age year of 1969.

Reflected in these pages you will find some of those who took the challenge of Life.

Jan Storey is MHS's fashion expert.

Peaches gets ready for the costume party.

Keith escorts Theresa through the Spook House at the PTA Carnival.

Seven o'clock practice doesn't get these Juniors down.

Now what did you say about A & M?

Tater and Jughead.

The band leaves the gym slowly after playing hard at a pep rally.

Captains Johnny Lowe and German Diaz lead the way.

Gunfight in Panther Gym.

Brent, Howard, and Bobby watch the Homecoming Parade.

Coach Tilley helps himself at the Jr. High Football Banquet.

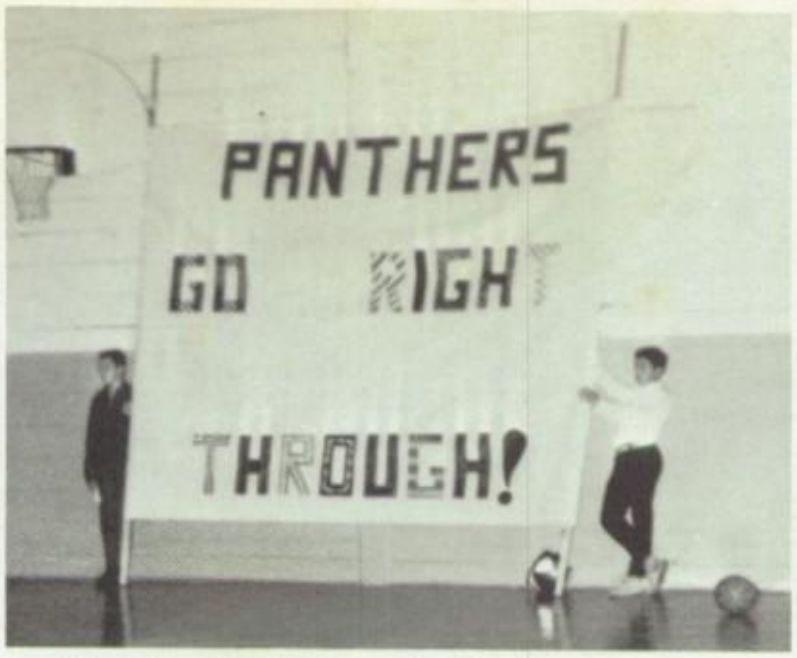
Reflections of Fall

School opened and along came fall, filled with football games and pep rallies and fun.

The band practiced its half-time shows over and over; the cheerleader worked hard on yells and pep rallies; and most of all the football boys practiced and practiced to make the '68 football season a great one.

In these pages we find the reflections of all this and even more. Reflected here is the happiness of a fun-filled fall at MHS.

Toni smiles as Homecoming is kicked off.



The cheerleaders worked hard on this and other spirit signs.

Phil Davis gives a pep talk at a pep rally.

Football

Season

Mr. Parker helps the baritones at a pep rally.

Katha Graves makes a pep rally skit funny.

Belinda, Debbie, Mary Ann, and Lynn entertain at the Jr. High Football Banquet.

Jeanette Freeman enjoys the Jr. High Football Banquet.

Melanie Felton gives football season a kicking start.

Mr. Parker helps the band get set up before a football game.

Katha watches the game intently.

May this edition of the PANTHER serve through the years to reflect the many experiences and the pleasant days we have spent on the campus of Mart High School.

It is our hope that the Class of '69 will find in these reflections and fond memories the realization that the contributions made by family, faculty, and friends were directed toward making a brighter and better future for each of them.

To all of you who have cooperated so well to make this another fine year in the history of Mart High School - students, parents, board members, patrons, and teachers - may I express my personal appreciation.

Leslie B. Bryant

PRINCIPAL

No matter what paths you will follow in the years ahead, these will be days you will recall with joy and pleasure, and this latest edition of THE PANTHER will become even more cherished with the passing of time.

For the Seniors this especially is a wonderful time. All too soon you will be leaving your high school, but I know you will take with you wonderful memories of friends and teachers that will give you inspiration and happiness in the years ahead. I join the faculty and your fellow students in wishing each of you success and happiness.

God bless Mr. Bryan, Mr. Kemp, this school ...

Here comes de judge!

Too much starch.

Open wide for CHUNKY!

What do you do after you put it in your mouth?

But Mr. Bryan is watching!

How does that grab you, darling?

Roses are red
Violets are blue
The shorter the skirts
The better the view.

How boring can you get?

This is a paralizing Monday.

This is no time for sleeping!

I told them not to jam these? keys.

Hope I don't forget any notes.

CLASS OF 1969

Inevitably there comes a time in the life of a Senior when he must leave behind familar faces and friendly places. For us Seniors '69 our time had come. As we received our diplomas May 19, 1969, we suddenly became aware that MHS is all in the past. We will always remember the fun we had as "grand and glorious" Seniors. Yet we know that every end brings a new beginning.

Being a Fish was a new experience for students coming from Mart Jr. High and from Hallsburg. Those upper classmen really gave us a lot of trouble, help, and good advice. But next year as Sophs we'll start handing out the trouble, help, and advice.

ORGANIZATIONS

PANTHER STAFF STRIVES TO RE-CREATE SCHOOL YEAR

The Panther Staff, sponsored by Mr. Curry, has one main objective: to record the school year accurately. Staff members put forth a lot of time and effort trying to achieve this goal. They work hard planning and preparing layouts, taking pictures, writing copy, and making money to pay for the book. In spite of work and worry seeing the finished product is ample reward.

STAFF EDITORS: Elementary Ed., Joan Bordovsky; Girl's Sports Ed., Jan Storey; Business Manager, Linda Gunter; Activities Ed., Edith Sockwell; Boy's Sports Ed., John Spenn; Faculty Ed., Ella Mae Ehlers; Sponsor, Mr. Curry; Editor, Shirley Freyer; Administration Ed., Margaret Lynd; Classes Ed., Margaret Werner; Organization Ed., Patti Bryan; Favorites Ed., Phyllis Reynolds; Junior High Ed., Jennifer Read.

One of the highest honors that a Mart High student can obtain is that of selection to membership in the National Honor Society. Qualifications for members require a year's attendance in MHS and a grade average of 85 with no grade below 80. Also members must have a 90 average in conduct. The NHS has many activities during the year. This year they participated in the March-athon, and sold the most per student than any other school in the county. The NHS's goal is to create enthusiasm for scholarships, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils. Mr. Kemp is the sponsor.

OFFICERS: Phyllis Reynolds, Reporter; Carolyn Bordovsky, First Semester Secretary; Nancy Byrd, Vice-President; Pat Williams, Second Semester Secretary; Susan Simpson, First Semester Treasurer; Mary Muhl, Second Semester Treasurer; Margaret Werner, President.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY SIGNIFIES SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

FFA EMPHASIZES KNOWLEDGE THROUGH SKILL

Future Farmers of America, sponsored by Mr. Fox, has the principal aim of developing agricultural leadership, co-operation, citizenship, and individual responsibility. Members learn this by entering leadership contest, judging contests, and by attending spring and fall livestock shows. Several members attended the District and Area Talent banquets.

OFFICERS: Garbert Wright, Reporter; Keith Thompson, President; Tom Felton, Vice-President; Joe Kimball, Secretary; Billy Frank Pavelka, Treasurer.

FHA OFFERS LEADERSHIP AND TRAINING

OFFICERS: Miss Marley, Sponsor; Debbie Chadwell, Fourth Vice-President; Edith Sockwell, Treasurer; Meredith Russell, Historian; Linda Glenn, Parliamentarian; Miss Callison, Student Teacher; Dana Wiley, Pianist; Sara Fuentes, Second Vice-President; Mary Jo Coker, President; Monte Story, Beau; Shirley Freyerk, First Vice-President; Margaret Lynd, Third Vice-President; Nancy Byrd, Secretary.

Future Homemakers of America emphasizes the importance of effective home-making, and encourages creative leadership. They are very active beyond the local level, shown by their sending delegates to the district, area, and state meetings. Miss Marley is the sponsor. Some of the highlights of their year are the Style Show, Mother-Daughter Banquet, and the trip to Six Flags.

LIBRARIANS KEEP LIBRARY RUNNING SMOOTHLY

Miss Folley is busy at one of her numerous duties in the library.

In a land where silence reigns supreme, assistant librarians learn and practice good book care. They also give help finding books and research aid. Using their off periods librarians also check books in and out, catalogue books, and make attractive bulletin boards. The club is sponsored by Miss Folley, who is head librarian and devotes all her time to the library.

Sue Felton, one of the assistant librarians, checks in books.

RIGHT: Kay McMillan goofs off in the back room of the library.

NEWS COMES TO LIFE IN THE PANTHER SCREAMS

The Panther Screams Staff serves the purpose of keeping students posted on each week's happenings. It appears weekly on the front page of the Mart Daily Herald. Work on the paper is a continuous process with no breaks. As one week's Panther Screams goes to the press, the next week's is being planned. The staff is sponsored by Mr. Martin.

STAFF MEMBERS: Beverly Williams, Mary Jo Coker, Brenda Bridges, Kathy Petterson, Mr. Martin, Phyllis Reynolds, Mary Muhl, and Gail Breeland.

The Latin Club is composed of students who have taken or are taking Latin. Fascinating topics of ancient Roman mythology are explored by members of the club. Enjoyment comes in singing songs in Latin and enrichment develops from deeper study of cultural and classical Roman Heritage. Highlighting the year for the Latin Club was their trip to Waco to see Romeo and Juliet and eating at Kims. Mrs. Childers is the sponsor.

EL CÍRCULO ESPAÑOL

OFFICERS: Dana Wiley, Reporter; Rita Travers, Vice-President; Sara Fuentes, President.

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Knebles, serves to promote interest in the Spanish language and to familiarize students with the culture and civilization of the Spanish-speaking countries. Its monthly programs are related to the culture, history, life, and customs of the Spanish people. The highlight of this year for the Spanish Club was their trip to the Monterrey House for a most enjoyable meal.

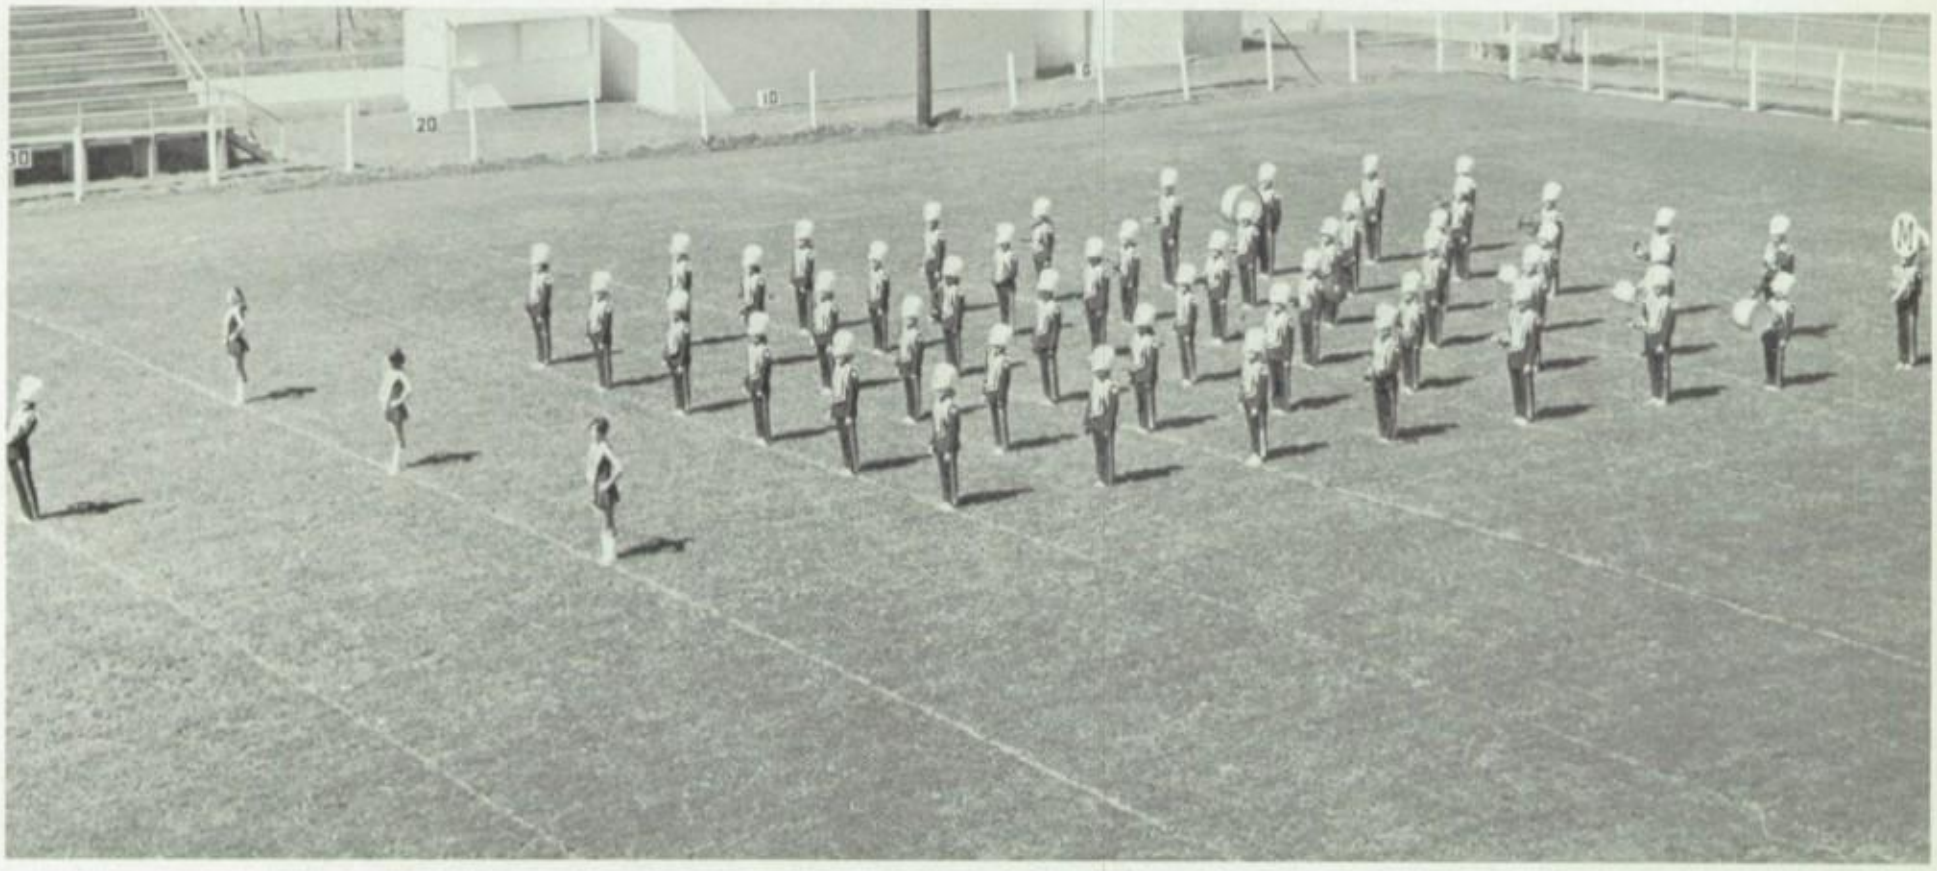
ADD SPARKLE TO THE BAND

Joyce Davis

The majorettes are chosen on the basis of marching and twirling ability, and the drum major on ability to direct and command the band. These girls work hard not only practicing with the band but also making up their special numbers for each game. The highlight of the year for them was the Homecoming game in which they did an excellent number using fire batons.

MART HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND



Under the direction of Jim Parker, the Panther Band performed at pep rallies and football games and led the Homecoming and Christmas parades. In November the band went to U.I.L. Marching Contest, receiving an excellent rating.

On-stage performances included the Christmas and Annual Spring Contest. In April the band attended U.I.L. Concert and Sightreading Contest. They received ratings of excellent and good.

A lot of time, including many afternoon sessions, goes into all performances by the band.

Hi there!

The 1968 "B" Team is probably one of the best teams I have coached since being here at Mart. Even though the record was the same as last year (6-2) I feel this team had more depth than any other. We ended up with 25 boys, which is twice as many as we normally have. We feel that there are several boys who will do a good job on the Panther "A" team next season.

COACH: Mrs. George
CAPTAINS: Jan Storey and Katha Graves

The 1968-69 Basketball season proved to be a rewarding one for the Mart High Pantherettes. Led by all District forward - Jan Storey and all District guard - Margaret Lynd, the hustling Pantherettes placed third in district with an 8-4 record.

The Pantherettes will need a strong effort from the returning lettermen and players to fill the vacancies created by four graduating seniors - Jan Storey, Brenda Bridges, Toni Wayland, and Katha Graves.

The spirit and team work displayed by the Pantherettes team were large factors in their winning season.
